

THE WEST END.

A Collection of Choice and Interesting Paragraphs.

FORT WINGATE VISITORS WELCOME.

I understand, Mr. Editors, since Isadora entered the arena of journalistic life—that is, to see that West Albuquerque is not to be overlooked—some people who have been in their holes for centuries have sprung back into life, and are envious of Isadora's gifts as a writer. Their jealousies, however, will not in the least disturb the sweet repose of your lady correspondent, who does her writings in the early hours and who is onto many nice little things that will prove worthy of space in the columns of your widely circulated Citizen. However, should Bodora offend some one's tender sensibilities and will have to "wash in," the west end will not be allowed to go by default, for every house in every alley and especially around the plaza and in the court houses contain some brilliant brain that is always willing to respond to the reading public.

That veteran of many a pleasant plaza yarn, Dr. W. T. Strachan, has returned from Cimarron, the Indian village midway between the metropolis and Jemez hot springs. The doctor had charge of the stage station for H. L. Keagy, and was proving a first-class employee when sickness overtook him. He got back to old town yesterday and will be under the care of a physician until he considers himself well enough to return to Cimarron.

The court house janitor, who also looks after the yard, informed your correspondent yesterday afternoon that he will cut four crops of alfalfa from the yard this season. The first crop is now almost ready to be cut.

H. V. Harris, Bernadine's excellent probate clerk, is contemplating sending his family to Jemez hot springs in a short time, where a house will be rented and they will remain away from the city until about the first of September. The competent clerk will visit them occasionally during their absence.

B. F. Perez, the school superintendent of the county, was at his office yesterday.

I saw him for a few moments, and he declared that he never saw schools outside of old and new towns of Albuquerque, in a more flourishing and encouraging condition than now. It is his opinion that half of the county schools will hold closing exercises in June.

Superintendent Trimble, of the street railway, is proving one of the best agents of the west end. He is accommodating and can be approached on any kind of a proposition.

W. H. Burke, ex justice of the peace, is matriculating on the Tom Phelan ranch south of the city, where he has buttermilk three times a day and cream in his coffee every morning.

E. W. Fulghum, secretary of the Dunham Hadley Mercantile company at Raton is in the city, arriving this morning from a trip over the Atlantic & Pacific.

He will go north to Raton to-morrow morning.

B. B. Borden was a passenger returning for Catskill, in the northern part of New Mexico, where she will likely remain for ten days delivering sermons, etc.

Ramsey, who is anxious to leave for Southern California, informs citizens that Lorion Miller, secretary of the territory, is negotiating for the lease of the Albuquerque residence.

J. H. Huling, of the wood and hide firm Sage Oberle & Co., is expected to come from Chicago this evening or to-morrow morning. The spring wood season is opened up and he wants to be on ground.

T. G. Lawler, commander-in-chief Grand Army of the Republic, and Jones, the adjutant general, who visited the territorial Grand Army apartment at Santa Fe, will return to set this evening.

A. M. Burgess, the pleasant brother of the treasurer of Valencia county, spanned by Mrs. Maria Romero and Maria Otero, arrived in the metropolis yesterday from low lands and put up foreign European. They are shopping.

H. Curtis, of the Silver City Northwest, a branch to the Hanover in Grant county, who passed through the metropolis going north the day, returned south last night and is expected for the night here, register on the San Felipe.

Pera, school superintendent, has had an official visit to a number of the schools of the county.

He found the schools visited in a flourishing condition. The school at Los Alamos, the two schools at Taos, and at Pena Blanca are arranging to give closing exercises in June.

Those who sympathize with D. E. Carr of Harrison street, Kansas City. He is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been well in this climate. Last winter he came up into Wisconsin, and in consequence had another attack. "It came again very acute and severe."

"My joints swelled and became sore to touch or almost to look upon the urgent request of my physician I tried Cheloneol, a preparation for swelling and ease the joint, my agreeable surprise it did not use three fifty-cent hot bath, and believe it to be the finest thing I ever used."

"For sale by Thos. H. Burgess & Son.

Hamilton, the dentist who has held for the past few months in the building, upstairs, has closed his and will return to Chicago in a few days from there will go to Buffalo.

Dr. Hamilton is one of the best dentists that ever came to the southwest his departure will be regretted by all.

Nothing like knowing

you sure the kidneys are not the cause of your trouble. In hundreds of cases the kidneys are treated for other diseases, when a simple kidney remedy will cure them. It is worth while to find out, and a trial pack of Oregon Kidney Tea costs only 25 cents.

It is strictly vegetable and can do you harm, and our opinion is, it is the one you need. Sold by all drugstores.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Kidney Tea know its value, and those who have not, now have the opportunity to do so. Call on the advertised drugstore, and get a sample of the tea. Send name and address to H. E. Buckner, Chicago, and get a sample box of King's New Life Pills free, as well as a money refund. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Thos. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

To Two Years.

By reference to another article under the head of "Papers Filed," it will be seen that Gov. Thornton has committed the sentence of E. L. Gilbert, convicted of embezzling Wells Fargo express company funds while agent here, from six years to two in the penitentiary. Mr. Gilbert has served about three-fourths of the time, and the above action of the governor will receive hearty approval from the people of this city, who have all along considered the sentence too severe considering the nature of the crime and the fact that no one, not even the express company, for the shortage was made good, was in the least hurt by the embezzlement.

A WONDER.

SURE ENOUGH GIANT TURNS UP AT LAS PLACITAS.

That truth is stranger than fiction is becoming more and more apparent every day. The latest evidence of this fact is given by B. F. Perez, the superintendent of schools for this county. In conversation with a Citizen reporter this morning, Mr. Perez told of the discovery of the bones of a sure enough giant in the vicinity of Las Placitas. The important "find" was made by Antonio Aragon in a deep arroyo near that town. He presented two of the mastodon's teeth to Mr. Perez, who has promised to place them on exhibition at this office Monday next.

The pair of molars are said to weigh ten pounds, and if the giant can be gauged by the size of his teeth, he must have been a monster. The right arm of the prehistoric creature has been partly uncovered by Mr. Aragon. The bones will be carefully preserved, and in time will be presented to the Smithsonian Institute.

From Tucson Daily.

Rumors are in circulation of half a dozen marriages this month and next month or more plainly speaking immediately after the closing of the schools.

A cup of Parks' Tea at night moves the bones in the morning without pain or discomfort. It is a great health giver and blood purifier. Sold by Dr. H. Burgess & Son.

W. H. Burke, ex justice of the peace, is matriculating on the Tom Phelan ranch south of the city, where he has buttermilk three times a day and cream in his coffee every morning.

E. W. Fulghum, secretary of the Dunham Hadley Mercantile company at Raton is in the city, arriving this morning from a trip over the Atlantic & Pacific.

He will go north to Raton to-morrow morning.

B. B. Borden was a passenger returning for Catskill, in the northern part of New Mexico, where she will likely remain for ten days delivering sermons, etc.

Ramsey, who is anxious to leave for Southern California, informs citizens that Lorion Miller, secretary of the territory, is negotiating for the lease of the Albuquerque residence.

J. H. Huling, of the wood and hide firm Sage Oberle & Co., is expected to come from Chicago this evening or to-morrow morning. The spring wood season is opened up and he wants to be on ground.

T. G. Lawler, commander-in-chief Grand Army of the Republic, and Jones, the adjutant general, who visited the territorial Grand Army apartment at Santa Fe, will return to set this evening.

A. M. Burgess, the pleasant brother of the treasurer of Valencia county, spanned by Mrs. Maria Romero and Maria Otero, arrived in the metropolis yesterday from low lands and put up foreign European. They are shopping.

H. Curtis, of the Silver City Northwest, a branch to the Hanover in Grant county, who passed through the metropolis going north the day, returned south last night and is expected for the night here, register on the San Felipe.

Pera, school superintendent, has had an official visit to a number of the schools of the county.

He found the schools visited in a flourishing condition. The school at Los Alamos, the two schools at Taos, and at Pena Blanca are arranging to give closing exercises in June.

Those who sympathize with D. E. Carr of Harrison street, Kansas City. He is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been well in this climate. Last winter he came up into Wisconsin, and in consequence had another attack. "It came again very acute and severe."

"My joints swelled and became sore to touch or almost to look upon the urgent request of my physician I tried Cheloneol, a preparation for swelling and ease the joint, my agreeable surprise it did not use three fifty-cent hot bath, and believe it to be the finest thing I ever used."

"For sale by Thos. H. Burgess & Son.

Hamilton, the dentist who has held for the past few months in the building, upstairs, has closed his and will return to Chicago in a few days from there will go to Buffalo.

Dr. Hamilton is one of the best dentists that ever came to the southwest his departure will be regretted by all.

Nothing like knowing

you sure the kidneys are not the cause of your trouble. In hundreds of cases the kidneys are treated for other diseases, when a simple kidney remedy will cure them. It is worth while to find out, and a trial pack of Oregon Kidney Tea costs only 25 cents.

It is strictly vegetable and can do you harm, and our opinion is, it is the one you need. Sold by all drugstores.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Kidney Tea know its value, and those who have not, now have the opportunity to do so. Call on the advertised drugstore, and get a sample of the tea. Send name and address to H. E. Buckner, Chicago, and get a sample box of King's New Life Pills free, as well as a money refund. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Thos. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

To Two Years.

By reference to another article under the head of "Papers Filed," it will be seen that Gov. Thornton has committed

WINNERS AGAIN.

THE SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP GAME CAPTURED WITH EASE.

PONT WINGATE'S LAURELS LOWERED.

The second championship base ball game was played at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon before one of the best and most orderly crowds of spectators that has ever assembled to witness a game of base ball in this city even the kids, who were heretofore uninterested in account of their freshness, kept their tongues quiet, and did not indulge in yelling or using slang phrases toward the players. It was a remarkable crowd in this respect, and showed that the soldiers of Tan Crittas to treat visitors cordially, and to cause visiting local players, when they are under instructions how to play, was needed. Again, the game was favored by a number of ladies, and they joined with the gentlemen in applauding all good plays.

The opposing team in the second championship game on home grounds was the soldier club of the Second cavalry, Fort Wingate, and they, with many warm supporters from the west, arrived in the city on the No. 2 delayed passenger train Saturday night.

The game started promptly on advertising time, 2:45 o'clock, with Frank Johnson, one of the fairest impunes, in that thankless position, and although Judge Collier of working the docket as fast as possible.

Mrs. W. B. Saunders, the San Marcial young married woman, who was one of Taylor Jones' most patient minutes, although she was a lively being on the street, has gone to Tucson, where, it is learned, she is one of the dizzy inmates of a house of ill-fame. The madame of the Tucson house was here a few days ago.

Superintendent Trimble, of the street railway, is proving one of the best agents of the west end. He is accommodating and can be approached on any kind of a proposition.

The Pedro club, which will go down into history as one of the social organizations of the west end, will probably disband after next Sunday night for the summer. The members claim that the weather is getting a little too hot for playing, and again there are rumors that the treasurer is short in his accounts.

Improvements are going on in the west end regardless of the judgment and unfaltering remarks of Barcelos people, who claim that we are not fit to be annexed to the city of Albuquerque. Patricio de la Cruz, of the west end, and Dominguez Chaves, of Barcelos, engaged in a war of words yesterday over the question, and Chaves was getting the best of the argument, when Cornelius Murphy and Hank Pinckney joined with Chaves and the gallant Barcelos attorney took to the streets.

The old town auditorium is proving a valuable play house for the west end, and rumors are to be believed the auditorium will be the scene of many battles with gloves in the future.

District Court Clerk Marron will allow the use of his name, the west end desires to place their faith and money in him in the big league contest at the territorial fair.

Postmaster Benny and his wife have the most substantial business house on the plaza, and the general postmaster, who sells general merchandise and occasionally dabbles in minor, is getting rich.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in bases.

Ortiz, the right fielder, knocked the ball hard and strong, his batting proving him a good one, while his field playing was much admired.

Old reliable Quier, out in left field, was at home and pulled down several sky scrapers. He wedged the bat in grand style, but needs a little bit of advice how to protect himself in